	Jack and Ally are scientists. They study different animals in the desert. Jack and Ally have to be careful not to go far from each other. They use whistles (哨子) to send messages. Three blasts (哨响) mean "DANGER!"
	One day, Ally was watching a killer bee. Jack was away near a big rock. He didn't see the mountain lion on the rock. It was almost the colour of the rock. Suddenly Jack heard a low growl (吼叫) near him. He looked up. The lion was there looking at him.
	Jack knew the mountain lion was very fast. He remembered something from his old book. He began to back (后退) slowly away. But all the time he tried to keep his eyes on the lion and make himself look big.
	Suddenly, Jack fell into a cave. The lion jumped off the rock and walked around outside. If the lion found Jack in here, it would be too dangerous for him.
