十、中国有很多的传统节日, 请阅读下面的文章, 完成相应的任务。 (共 7 分)

The Lantern Festival

The Lantern Festival is a special Chinese holiday. It falls on the 15th day of the first month in the Chinese lunar calendar every year. It's the last day of the Spring Festival holiday. This festival started a long time ago, during the Han Dynasty.

People love to see beautiful lanterns. They enjoy guessing fun riddles. The lanterns have many lovely shapes and colors. They light up the streets and homes. There are also lantern fairs. People go there to see lots of lanterns and try to find out the riddles.

Eating yuanxiao or tangyuan is a sweet tradition. These are sticky rice balls with sweet stuff inside. They're round, which means family together and happiness. It's a wish for families to stay close.

Exciting dragon and lion dances make the festival more fun. The dances drive away bad luck and welcome good luck and peace for the new year. Kids really love watching these big, colorful dances!

When the Lantern Festival comes, Chinese people celebrate with these activities. We enjoy the nice and warm feelings of our old traditions.
