Jim

Hi, friends! I went to Xi'an, China by air this May Day holiday.

On the first day, I visited the Terracotta Warriors Museum. Those terracotta warriors are taller than modern people. Each warrior has a different face shape and hair style.

On the second day, I went to the Shaanxi History Museum. I saw some old bowls, caps and ceramic horses. The horses are colorful and beautiful.

On the third day, I climbed Huashan Mountain. The clouds in the sky looked fantastic. We got to the top of the mountain in the evening. It was a little cold. My sister caught a cold.

On the last day, we went to the Huimin Street. It's famous for delicious food. I tried many different foods. For example, roujiamo, it was like a hamburger. I also ate some cold noodles. They were a little spicy but so yummy. Both roujiamo and cold noodles were my favorites.

Xi'an is a great city with a long history, beautiful ancient things and delicious food. I think I'll visit it again in the future!
